Ahem (cough)... Is this thing switched on? ... It is?

Ho ho ho! Hello there, traveler! I am the venerable Sage of Save, Master of Stories, and preserver of the historical record. I hope you're sitting comfortably!

In my time, I have been tasked as keeper of many of the forgotten legends of Monster World! There is the legend of the hero who confronted a mighty enemy alone; there are legends of boys and girls fighting together against a common foe. There was even the legend of heroes who fought alongside spirits. Many heroes sought courage and wisdom, and for their efforts were rewarded with a hard won peace!

But peace is all too often a fleeting dream. In the blinking of an eye the world has once more been plunged into chaos! Dark days when monsters rampage and fear reigns. A time of terror!

But from out of the darkness came a ray of light: a single girl who hears the call to become the hero the world needs her to be!

The name of this girl is Asha!

The road ahead is long, and she will require assistance in her journey. Assistance from somebody like you, traveler. Are you equal to the task?

Bam bada bam!!!

It is a rare pleasure to make my acquaintance! I, the amazing Genie of the Lamp, will be your humble guide through this adventure!

First acquaint yourself with the prologue. Have you read it yet? No? Well go and read it now...I'll wait!

Take control of Asha at this critical hour as she follows the whispers in the wind that call for her help. There are many mysteries to solve, and many enemies to defeat!
